About Me

Force-sensitive Mandalorian belonging to the same mysterious species as the legendary Grand Master Yoda. I was born in the year 41 BBY, and was raised at the Jedi Temple on Coruscant as a Jedi Initiate of the Jedi Order. I survived the Great Jedi Purge and was hidden away. I was rediscovered by a remnant of the Galactic Empire after it fell, and became known to many simply as "The Child," during the New Republic Era. However, I was rescued by Din Djarin, a Mandalorian bounty hunter where he became a founding. Djarin was able to find a Jedi to train me and I rejoined the Jedi Order under Jedi Master Luke Skywalker. However, Skywalker sensed that my heart wasn't into learning the Jedi path, thus I subsequently gave in to my attachment to the Mandalorian.
