

Chesapeake Shakespeare Company

Presents

Driven by monstrous ambition, Victor Frankenstein dares to create life from death—unleashing a forsaken Creature who seeks vengeance for his abandonment. Framed by the famous night when Mary Shelley and her friends challenged one another to invent a terrifying tale, this powerful adaptation places Shelley center stage. Story and storyteller blur as the ensemble conjures her gothic masterpiece, revealing creation as something wild and dangerous. This spine-tingling new take on literature's famous monster is perfect for the chills of autumn.

Saturday October 10, 2026

Pickup: 12:45pm Show: 2pm

Cost: $70 (ticket & transportation)