The 41st Annual Winter Solstice Reunion Concerts reunite three world class musicians Ken Kolodner (hammered dulcimer, fiddle), Robin Bullock (piano, guitar, cittern, mandolin) and Chris Norman (wooden flutes, tin whistle, small pipes) of Helicon for their annual holiday celebration. Helicon will bring to life seasonal Scottish, Irish, French Canadian, Appalachian, Bluegrass and other world music with a cavalcade of special guests.

Joining Helicon once again will be The Ken & Brad Kolodner Quartet and Charm City Junction! Ken has performed with his son Brad since 2011 along with bandmates Alex Lacquement and Rachel Eddy as a quartet. Acoustic roots powerhouse Charm City Junction, featuring their unique blend of Irish, Bluegrass and Old Time music, bring their youthful, fiery energy to the stage. Prepare to be dazzled by the astounding North American Step-dance Champion Jonathon Srour (who grew up attending the concerts) and his wife and champion step-dancer/fiddler Claire Shirey. Also joining in the fun, Scottish fiddler Elke Baker and Chris Norman's daughter, vocalist Evangeline Norman. The show is dynamic and unlike any other seasonal show. It’s a tradition that is not to be missed!
